EPF OVER THE YEARS (1951-2017)

▶ 1951

- The Employees Provident Fund (EPF) was established under the EPF Ordinance 1951, and placed under the National Director of Posts.

▶ 1952

- The EPF has 518,948 members and 11,918 registered employers in its network. A total of RM2.6 million was collected in contributions.

▶ 1956

- The EPF made its first short- and long-term investments in the Federation, Singapore and Municipal Government securities.

▶ 1958

- The EPF Board took over the administration of the EPF from the National Director of Posts.

▶ 1960

- The EPF officially opened its new headquarters in Petaling Jaya, Selangor, in November.

▶ 1961

- Tan Sri Dato' Abdul Jamil Abdul Rais was appointed as the EPF's first Malaysian Chairman.

▶ 1963

- The EPF Ordinance was amended to cover employers who employ at least three persons, as opposed to five or more persons.

▶ 1967

- Automated data processing was introduced with the installation of a mainframe computer.

▶ 1968

- The EPF Ordinance was amended to provide for the withdrawal of one-third of a member's savings upon reaching age 50 to assist in purchasing a house and preparing for retirement.

▶ 1969

- The EPF extended its coverage to include Sabah and Sarawak.

▶ 1970

- The EPF's asset size grew to RM2.1 billion, while membership approached two million.

▶ 1975

- The contribution rates increased to 6 per cent for employees and 7 per cent for employers. By this time, the EPF had 2.6 million members and 75,000 registered employers.

▶ 1977

- The EPF Ordinance was amended to:
  - (1) Increase employees' contribution rate;
  - (2) Allow the self-employed the option to contribute to the EPF; and
  - (3) Allow members to withdraw up to 10 per cent of the purchase price of a low-cost house from their savings.

▶ 1980

- Membership increased to 3.7 million with close to 110,000 registered employers, while contributions for the year surpassed the RM1 billion mark. The employee contribution rate was raised from 6 per cent to 9 per cent and employers' rate from 7 per cent to 11 per cent effective 1 December.

▶ 1981

- To mark the EPF's 30th anniversary, Minister of Finance Tengku Razaleigh Hamzah laid the foundation stone for a new 28-storey EPF building on Jalan Raja Laut, Kuala Lumpur.

▶ 1982

- On 22 July, the EPF Ordinance 1951 became the EPF Act 1951.

▶ 1983

- The EPF declared its highest dividend rate of 8.5 per cent, which it maintained until 1987.

▶ 1990

- The EPF invested significantly in corporate bonds for the first time and increased the number of its portfolio managers.

▶ 1991

- The EPF celebrated its 40th anniversary, and the EPF Act 1951 (Amended 1982) was replaced with the EPF Act 1991 to liberalise investment regulations and enhance the withdrawal schemes while facilitating enforcement.

▶ 1993

- The EPF entered into project financing and joint ventures for the first time, in line with the government's privatisation agenda.

▶ 1995

- The EPF introduced the first Social Security Course in the country, attended by its officers as well as those from other social security organisations.

▶ 1996

- The EPF launched the Members' Investment Scheme, allowing members with more than RM55,000 in their Account 1 to invest in unit trusts through approved Fund Management Institutions appointed by the Securities Commission.

▶ 1997

- Construction began at the EPF Social Security Training Institute in Bangi, Selangor.

▶ 1999

- The EPF's Computer Department ensured that the EPF's computer system was Y2K compliant.

▶ 2000

- The EPF introduced the Education Withdrawal Scheme and the Pensionable Employees Withdrawal Scheme.

▶ 2001

- Membership grew to 10 million and total assets to RM186 billion. In April, Tan Sri Azlan Zainol was appointed as Chief Executive Officer of the EPF.

▶ 2003

- The EPF established a Call Management Centre and set up a one-stop customer service centre at the EPF Head Office at Jalan Raja Laut, Kuala Lumpur.
- A high-level Business Process Re-engineering project, known internally as SERVE (Service Excellence), was initiated to redesign and streamline the EPF's work processes and IT systems through the replacement of the legacy mainframe system.

▶ 2004

- The EPF introduced the Balanced Score Card management system as part of its strategy to become a world-class social security organisation and the top government agency in Malaysia.
- The e-Kiosk, which allows members to print their statement using their MyKad, was set up at 13 states and 28 branch offices nationwide.

▶ 2007

- The EPF introduced Beyond Savings, which restructured members' accounts from three to two; introduced the Flexible Age 55 Withdrawal scheme; and allowed members with savings in excess of RM1 million to manage their savings on their own.

▶ 2008

- Effective 1 February, the liability period for EPF contributions was extended from age 55 to age 75. The EPF also set Basic Savings targets for different age levels to help members accumulate at least RM120,000 by age 55.

- The EPF established the nation's first Social Security Endowed Chair at the University of Malaya.
- The EPF established the International Social Security Association Sub-Regional Office for ASEAN countries in Kuala Lumpur to enhance cooperation among the ASEAN social security organisations in the area of social security development.

▶ 2009

- The EPF introduced the Anti-Fraud and Whistleblowing policies.
- The EPF was awarded a Five-Star Rating by the Malaysian Administrative Modernisation and Management Planning Unit (MAMPU).

▶ 2010

- The EPF launched the 1Malaysia Retirement Savings Scheme for the self-employed, and the service was later extended to include housewives.
- The EPF introduced the electronic Members Investment Option system to replace the manual system of withdrawal applications by members for investment in unit trusts.

▶ 2011

- The EPF extended its list of critical illnesses under the Health Withdrawal from 39 illnesses to 55, and permitted members to purchase medical support equipment effective 15 July 2011.

▶ 2012

- The EPF was awarded a Five-Star Excellence Ranking as a top front-line agency by MAMPU for the second time.

▶ 2013

- The EPF introduced e-Caruman, an online facility that allows employers to remit their contributions through i-Akaun on the myEPF website (www.kwsp.gov.my).
- The e-Pengeluaran was introduced, allowing EPF members to submit withdrawal applications online through their i-Akaun.

▶ 2014

- The EPF revised the Basic Savings, setting RM196,800 as the minimum amount members should have in their EPF accounts when they reach age 55.
- The EPF launched its first mobile application, the EPF i-Akaun.
- The EPF introduced the Retirement Advisory Service at its main branches at Jalan Raja Laut, Kuala Lumpur and Jalan Gasing, Petaling Jaya.

▶ 2015

- The EPF carried out the Members' Consultation exercise to obtain members' feedback on the enhancement initiatives proposal. The exercise received overwhelming response with 96,448 respondents.
- The Members' Consultation also revealed that 65.7 per cent of respondents were members aged 40 and below. This demonstrated that members aged 40 and below are increasingly interested in actively taking charge of their retirement planning.

▶ 2016

- The EPF introduced Simpanan Shariah to provide members with the option to have their account managed and invested according to Shariah principles.
- Registration for Simpanan Shariah started on 8 August and to be eligible for Simpanan Shariah 2017, members must register their application by 23 December.

▶ 2017

- The EPF announces the reclassification of data involving the number of EPF Members and employers starting with the Q32017 Operations results.
- The EPF announces four enhancements to its schemes and policies which will take effect on 1 January 2018 as part of the EPF's continuing effort to improve and meet members' increasing expectations.
- The EPF for the first time, declared a dividend rate 6.40 per cent for Simpanan Shariah 2017, with payout amounting to RM3.98 billion.
